

How to Play Dots and Boxes

- 1) Pair up.
- 2) Get a pencil or pen.
- 3) Get a piece of paper.
- 4) Draw a grid of dots, three by three, on the piece of paper.
- 5) Decide who starts. Take turns.
- 6) Draw a line between two dots.
- 7) Try to complete a box.
- 8) Don't let your adversary complete boxes.
- 9) When you complete a box, write your initial in it, then draw another line.
- 10) When all of the dots are connected, count the number of boxes.
The player with the most boxes wins.

How to Play Dots and Boxes

- 1) Pair up.
- 2) Get a pencil or pen.
- 3) Get a piece of paper.
- 4) Draw a grid of dots, three by three, on the piece of paper.
- 5) Decide who starts. Take turns.
- 6) Draw a line between two dots.
- 7) Try to complete a box.
- 8) Don't let your adversary complete boxes.
- 9) When you complete a box, write your initial in it, then draw another line.
- 10) When all of the dots are connected, count the number of boxes.
The player with the most boxes wins.

How to Play Dots and Boxes

- 1) Pair up.
- 2) Get a pencil or pen.
- 3) Get a piece of paper.
- 4) Draw a grid of dots, three by three, on the piece of paper.
- 5) Decide who starts. Take turns.
- 6) Draw a line between two dots.
- 7) Try to complete a box.
- 8) Don't let your adversary complete boxes.
- 9) When you complete a box, write your initial in it, then draw another line.
- 10) When all of the dots are connected, count the number of boxes.
The player with the most boxes wins.