

Resolução de Atividade - Fill in a chart - Output ING7_06UN03

| Celebrity       | How cyberbullying occurred                                                                                                                                         | How they reacted                                                                                             |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Adele           | After the birth of her son, users targeted jokes about the singer's weight.                                                                                        | Fans rallied to her defense. She drew strength from the fans support.                                        |
| Emma Watson     | Her university classmates began tormenting her about her famous role in the Harry Potter franchise.                                                                | She moved to a new University.                                                                               |
| Taylor Swift    | At high school, in the beginning of her career.                                                                                                                    | She was able to write everything out and forgot about her problems. She composes and sings.                  |
| Tom Daley       | Twitter users targeted him with tweets mocking his recently deceased father. Tom was also targeted due to his position in the gay and LGBTQ community.             | Many Anti-Bullying organizations came to his defense, and legal action was even taken against Twitter users. |
| Lorde           | Both Lorde and her boyfriend, James Lowe, were sent racist tweets by users regarding their relationship.                                                           | Lorde remained strong and tried not to stoop down to the bullie's level.                                     |
| Leann Rimes     | She had her private phone conversations secretly taped and distributed on the web maliciously.                                                                     | She went to a rehab.                                                                                         |
| Selena Gomez    | Pictures surfaced with Gomez gaining a few pounds.                                                                                                                 | She found a healthy way to move forward, by channeling her feelings into her new music.                      |
| Leslie Jones    | Twitter users unhappy with the casting choices of the Ghos Busters remake attacked Leslie on her personal twitter with tweets about her race and her dead brother. | Leslie removed herself from social media for a brief period of time in order to escape from the bullies.     |
| Zendaya Coleman | Haters were concerned she couldn't play a role in a movie due to her small acting career and because of her race.                                                  | Coleman gracefully held her head high and did her best to ignore the backlash at all costs.                  |