

Question 1

A good strategy to read a text in English is to look for words similar to Portuguese vocabulary.

Which of these are good examples of this similarity?

1 minute to answer and hand it in.

abandon
running away
relations
serious
real between

Question 2

Another nice strategy to read texts in English is to look for words commonly used, that you already know. How many of these words you already know?

3 minutes to write them down with the translation and hand it in. (You can look them up in the dictionary, but use your time wisely!)

boys She believe you good
love speak
think people never

Question 3

We've been talking about love and society. Which of these options is a current and polemic issue in Brazilian culture related to this topic?

2 minutes to write the letter of the right answer and hand it in.

- a) How couples of the same gender are treated by society
- b) You should marry a person before kissing her/him
- c) A person should pay the other's family to get married