

Organizing your ideas

Look at the pictures.

Pick one that is particularly meaningful to you and write keywords, statements and questions that refer to it in the grid below.

Don't tell anyone which picture you chose.

Pexels / Jason

Gettyimages

keywords short sentences questions statements
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Read your keywords, sentences, and questions to your classmates and have them guess which picture you picked.2. Now use the picture that you have chosen and your writings to create a photo report or an infographic. Put your creativity to work and let everyone know what you have come up with.

HOT TIP: don't forget to use imperatives, negative and interrogative forms of the verbs you choose.