Input - Probability - May & Might

1. It is time you and your classmate organized what you have practiced in the situations that are more or less likely to happen during your trip. Read the examples below and answer the questions.

      a) I may get lost and ask locals for direction.
      b) I might be interviewed in a touristic place.

  a. Which sentence mentions something that is more likely to happen? Which modal verb is used to indicate it?
Sentence a. 'May' is the modal verb used to indicate that.

  b. Which sentence mentions something that is less likely to happen? Which modal verb is used to indicate it?
Sentence b. 'Might' is the modal verb used to indicate that.

2. Take a look at these sentences from your previous oral practice. Discuss them with your classmate and write may to the ones that are more likely to happen and might to the ones that are less likely to happen.

  a. We may/might get lost
  b. We may/might ask locals for directions
  c. We may/might forget your ID card at home
  d. We may/might miss a bus ride in the city
  e. We may/might get sick after trying the local food
  f. We may/might be mugged on the street
  g. We may/might have food intoxication
  h. We may/might lose money
  i. We may/might stay in a dangerous area
  j. We may/might get some food you haven't ordered
  k. We may/might be discriminated
  l. We may/might be late for touristic rides

3. Unscramble the sentences. What do they have in common?

  a) careful. / might / if / be / They / more / they / aren't / mugged
They might be mocked if they aren't more careful.

  b) call / police. / the / may / We We may call the police.

  c) the / might / You / aid / for / first / look / room.
You might look for the first aid room.

  d) bus / may / earlier. / You / to / stop / the / go
You may go to the bus stop earlier.
